

The Simone de Beauvoir Institute and WSDB 390/4 presents

---

Wednesday, February 7 at 16:00

KARMELA KRLEZA-JERIC, M.D., D.Sc.

Women Between War and Reconstruction:
Experiences of Women Victims of War-related Violence

Place: The Lounge
Simone de Beauvoir Institute
Concordia University
2170 Bishop

Karmela Krleza-Jeric, M.D. is a specialist in public health, with expertise in applied research of health care systems, and epidemiology. Her work emphasizes the analysis and planning of health care systems, as well as health promotion and disability prevention. Dr. Krleza was an advisor of the World Health Organization in the areas of international health, health planning and health economics.

Dr. Karmela Krleza-Jeric is one of the founding members and director of Project Zora. The project promotes both the health and the prevention of disability of women in the specific area of Croatia and Bosnia-Herzegovina. Dr. Karmela Krleza-Jeric is currently the head of the Department of Health Care Management, Benefits Canada Inc. in Montreal.

Information: 848-2373